RE: ATD-Insider Publication for 2006

HUBERT SNEAD
Int'l Administrative V.P.

Dear Sisters and Brothers:

MICHAEL BAKALO
Int'l Administrative V.P.

This year's publication of the ATD-Insider has been cut from six issues to four, and they will be mailed directly to your Locals. We continue our vigilance in keeping our costs down. A quarterly publication will allow us to keep the members informed of important industry issues that affect them and their families. We will continue to inform our members of issues that our ATD Representatives are working on and also to have a dependable schedule for printing and shipping the ATD-Insider to your Local.

The ATD Communications Survey that was distributed back in January had a good response, with 66 percent of the Local Presidents taking the survey. The survey asked the Presidents of all ATD Locals whether or not the ATD-Insider should be continued and the response was 93 percent in favor of the newsletter. The major topics that were requested for coverage were: airline legislative issues, airline industry news, union organizing and training, negotiations when applicable, and safety issues in the airline industry. A similar question was asked pertaining to the ATD-Media Productions and 95 percent were in favor of keeping the "Industry Updates." The updates are produced weekly and cover late breaking airline industry news. The first issue of the ATD-Insider will be shipped from New York next week. Thanks to all of you that participated in taking the survey; our desire is to better inform our members of the issues. We are here to serve the ATD members of the Transport Workers Union.

Fraternally,

Gary Yingst
